Jay,

This looks like a solid, well thought out plan. As always, we may find the need to adjust depending on observations.

Cheers,

Zeb –

We can leave promptly at 9. It should be interesting. At the same time, I think we will find we don't have a lot to gain after taking a look and completing an initial review. If we are there more than 2 hours, it will likely mean we identified areas of concern.

Audrey signed the one-time 30-day extension (it's all we have authority to offer). You should be getting a copy from Naveed.
